If there are any additional/extraordinary meetings you would like us to attend, please do let us know.

A couple of bits to highlight this month:

1. Blaby District Council and Santander UK are seeking the public's views on a vision for a potential new community in Narborough and Enderby. The site, called Hayes Gardens, includes Carlton Park, owned by Santander, and Enderby Golf Course. The site is being proposed for inclusion in the Council's new Local Plan which will be consulted on later this year and which will guide how the district is developed up until 2041. For more information see the Blaby website or the proposal website.

2. Rupert Matthews was re-elected as the Police and Crime Commissioner for Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland with 35.29% of the vote (40.85% in Blaby). Turnout was 21.70% (16.33% in Blaby).

For information purposes, please find below plans for any holidays in the coming month.

NW: None

LC: None

If we can be of any help, please drop us an email or call.

Kind regards
