Accessibility Statement.

We want everyone who uses our website to be able to find, read and understand our content.

Our accessibility standards are outlined in the technical statement attached to this document.

View the site your way

You can change the colours, contract levels, font styles and magnify the page to 200% or more without the text spilling off the screen by using adobe reader for the PDF documents you wish to read.

Navigate by headings and links

By using browser plugins or assistive technology such as a screen reader to list the heading and subheadings or links in the page to allow you to go straight to the item you need.

Listening to content

By using a text to speech browser plugin or assistive technology to listen to content you have selected.

Navigate by keyboard

Users can navigate by keyboard only via highlighted

Skip to content

Users can use the keyboard only to skip to links and main

Tools and plugins to help your online experience

Explore some third party tools that can make your online experience better

https://get.adobe.com/reader/?loc=uk

https://chrome.google.com/webstore/detail/headingsmap/flbjommegcjonpdmenkdiocclhjacmbi

https://chrome.google.com/webstore/detail/selection-reader-text-to/fdffijlhedcdiblbingmagmdnokokgbi

Using different devices

Please see the link between desktop and mobile devices
https://www.stoneystanton.org.uk/accessibility.html